INTERNAL COMPLAINTS COMMITTEE FOR STUDENT REPRESENTATIVES ELECTION 2017-2018

22/09/2017

CODE OF CONDUCT

The student community is aware that the electoral process for Student Representatives to Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) 2017-2018 has started with effect from 22nd September 2017. The Election Committee (E.C.) has decided a code of conduct for a smooth functioning of the electoral process, keeping in mind the precedents and traditions of JNU. We appeal to the Student Community to cooperate with the Election Committee, so that the elections are conducted peacefully, smoothly and in a disciplined manner.

All the students of the University, particularly those desirous of contesting the elections, are advised to note the following points and abide by them during the entire electoral process, especially while campaigning.

- 1) All the public activities; Social, Cultural or Political shall be brought to the notice of the E.C., which shall grant permission for the time and venue of such activities.
- 2) No posters, pamphlets may be circulated or pasted without a copy being submitted to and with prior permission obtained from the E.C. office. This shall be done well in advance and not later than 5 p.m. on the day of release and pasting such pamphlets, posters etc.
- 3) Use of any PUBLIC ADDRESS SYSTEM, CLOTH BANNERS, FLAGS, PRINTED POSTERS, STICKERS and VEHICLES as a part of the campaigning by the candidate(s) or by some person(s) action on his/her behalf is strictly prohibited.
- 4) Any attempt to disrupt public meetings in any manner will be taken seriously and due action will be taken against such offences.
- 5) All the students are advised to refrain from using personal slander, making derogatory or inflammatory remarks or speeches or attempting to inflict physical injury on person(s) and/or causing damage to public property during the campaign, resulting in disciplinary action taken by the E.C., including the disqualification and/or disenfranchisement of the candidate(s)/voter(s) concerned.

If any of these rules are violated, the E.C. will take serious action against the offender(s). Violation of the above mentioned rules should be brought to the notice of the Chairperson, Election Committee (Dean of Students) in writing immediately.
