Extension of Hostel Facility to the Terminal Ph.D. Students

This is in continuation of Notice No. JNU/IHA/14/610 dated 16.01.2026 regarding the extension of hostel facility to terminal M.Phil./Ph.D. integrated program students of the 2018 & 2019 batch up to May 2026 as a special case.

However, several representations have been received from terminal M.Phil./Ph.D. integrated program students of the 2018 & 2019 batch requesting further extension of hostel accommodation. The matter has been duly examined, and it has been decided that extension of hostel facility may be considered on a case-to-case basis up to September 2026.

Accordingly, terminal M.Phil./Ph.D. integrated program students of the 2018 & 2019 batch seeking such extension are advised to submit their applications to the Office of the Dean of Students at the earliest. The applications must be duly recommended and endorsed for hostel extension by the concerned Supervisor, Chairperson, and Dean of the respective Centre/School.

It is hereby clarified that no further extension beyond this period will be granted under any circumstances. This decision is purely a one-time exception and shall not be treated as a precedent for future cases.
