

A Tribute to Prof. R.P. Dhokalia

1925-2019

By Dr. Bharat H. Desai
Professor of International Law
Centre for International Legal Studies, SIS, JNU
Friday Seminar; 04 October 2019

CAREER IN BRIEF

Dr. Ramaa P. Dhokalia (1925) former Professor and Dean of Law School, Banaras Hindu University, and former Secretary-General of Indian Society of International Law, New Delhi, has been a noted author, and a distinguished scholar and University teacher of Political Science and Legal Philosophy, International Law and Jurisprudence at different stages of his long academic career spanning over more than five decades, first at the University of Allahabad (1949-66) and later at Banaras Hindu University (1966-85) and Indian Academy of International Law, New Delhi (1986-92).

He has inspired generations of students and has been a Visiting Scholar and Professor at several universities in India and abroad. He has been Honorary Consultant to the Tibetan Parliamentary and Policy Research Centre New Delhi and also to National Research Centre for Value Education of the NCERT, New Delhi.

As a social scientist and a crusader of human values, culture and civilization, his writings have covered a wide area ranging from Political and Legal Philosophy, International Law, Rule of Law in Democracy, Science, Technology and Law, Human Rights, Values and Culture and Interfaith Understanding between World Religions

SCHOLARLY WORK –I

A compendium of essays, lectures and addresses of the author highlights the trend of progressive development of International Law and its codification in response to the changing needs and the challenges of the phenomenon of globalization of human society which is marching towards One World.

The author underlines the new methods and ways of progressive adaptation of the contemporary law and its codification, illustratively in specific areas only. Attention has been drawn to enunciation of the new concepts in the Law of the Sea, Law of Treaties, expanding State Responsibility, and the Aerial Law.

The problems pertaining to the relevance of the Law of War in the situation of armed conflicts as well as of the effectiveness of the World Court have been critically examined.

The thrust is also on the positive role of legal science, law teachers and jurists and the academic institutions in the future development of this law as a global law of mankind.

SCHOLARLY WORK –II

INTERNATIONAL LAW Towards A New Global Order

DR. R.P. DHOKALIA

Edited by
VIVEX DHOKALIA

Foreword by
DR. G.V.G. KRISHNAMURTY
Former Election Commissioner of India

TAXMANN

INTERNATIONAL LAW IN TRANSITION

ESSAYS IN MEMORY OF JUDGE NAGENDRA SINGH

Edited by

R.S. Pathak

R.P. Dhokalia

Foreword

Sir R.Y. Jennings

Martinus Nijhoff Publishers

AN IMPRINT OF KLUWER ACADEMIC PUBLISHERS
DORDRECHT • BOSTON • LONDON