Cultural Activities

Cultural activities among the student community on the campus are promoted through various cultural clubs namely : Debating, Drama, Film, Fine Arts, Literary, Music and Dance, Nature and Wild Life, Photography, and UNESCO.

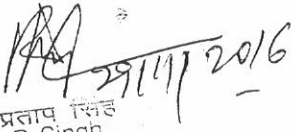

Each club functions under the supervision of the elected students conveners and the members of their executive committee who are elected every year by the student members of the respective clubs.

The University has a Cultural Committee headed by a Cultural Coordinator to promote the functioning of the clubs and organising of various cultural activities from time to time.

Only a nominal annual fee is charged to enable a large number of students to become members of clubs that they are interested in. A student can hold membership of more than one club.

NOTICE

3rd January, 2017

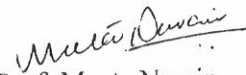

The IHA promotes various cultural activities among the full time students of the University. These activities are coordinated by the University Coordinator, Cultural Activities. The University has approved the following cultural clubs by the students. These clubs are managed by the students with membership of interested students. A convener elected by the students themselves coordinates the activities of each club with the overall supervision and guidance by the Cultural Coordinator appointed by the University.

The membership of each club is open to all registered full time students of the University. A nominal fee will be charged from the students. The membership is valid for one year. A student can be a member of more than one club but restricted to maximum of three. A convener will be elected by the student-members themselves for each club for the tenure of the period. A cultural Club inauguration will be held on Friday, the 20th January, 2017 where all clubs will show their activities.

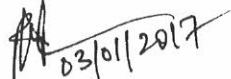

The membership is open to the following clubs and the membership forms can be collected from the office of the IHA. These are also available on JNU web site www.jnu.ac.in. They are to be submitted between 20 – 30 January, 2017 in the Office of the IHA from 10.00 a.m. to 4.30 p.m.

Interested students may contact the following faculty incharge & student representative:
