35. On 3rd November 2016, the administration appealed to JNU community not to politicize the issue and also expressed the concern over uncooperative approach of JNUTA and JNUSU towards finding a solution. Despite all efforts by the Administration, pamphlets, posters, demonstrations, dharnas, unlawful confinement and offensive sloganeering have been going on. Attempts are being made to disturb the normal functioning of the administration, and conduct of academic activities, including examinations.
36. The administration sent letters to the police to expedite the process to locate Najeeb on 4th and 5th November 2016.
37. The administration has issued letters instructing all those who are staging protest and public meetings, sit-in, hunger strike, etc near the administration building, to shift their venue away from the administrative and academic buildings, and not hamper the smooth functioning of the university. Such activities near the Administrative building are against the University Rules (Statute 32(5) of the university) as well as the Rulings of the Honorable High Court of India in many such cases.
38. On 7th November 2016, early in the morning, a bag containing a pistol and live rounds was found at the north gate of the campus that raises a grave concern about safety and security of students and other residents of the campus. Taking serious note of such incidences, the administration is in the process of installing CCTV cameras at the gates of the campus and other relevant public places inside the campus.

39. During 8th to 12th November 2016, the administration was in regular contact with the police and sent letters each day requesting them to expedite the process to locate the whereabouts of the missing student.
40. On 12th November 2016, the administration came to know that now Delhi Police's Crime Branch will be investigating the case of the missing student.
41. On 14th November 2016, the administration issued letters to JNUSU and advised them not to organize Juloos and protest gathering involving people from outside on 15th November 2016 at Ganga Dhaba, as announced by JNUSU. Since, a large number of outsiders may create unrest and a security threat inside the campus. In the light of recent happenings, this is of utmost importance to maintain the safety and security of the campus. Therefore, administration also advised JNUSU not to allow outsiders to stay at Students Activity Centre (Teflas) in the night.
42. On 17th November 2016, the administration came to know about the police (Joint Commissioner of Police, Crime) investigation stating that they have traced the driver of the auto-rickshaw who Ahmed hired on October 15 from Jawaharlal Nehru University to reach the campus of Jamia Millia Islamia, as reported in the newspapers.
43. The Proctorial inquiry related to the incident is also progressing.
44. The JNU administration was in regular contact with the police during 15-20 November, 2016. The administration wrote letter to police to expedite the process to locate the missing student and ensure his safe return to the campus.
45. On 01 December 2016, the JNU administration issued a press release clarifying that despite all the steps being taken to trace the missing student, certain groups of students and the university's students union have been consistently spreading false information and making unfounded allegations against the administration. Outsiders are invited into the campus to participate in agitations aimed more against the administration and less on the need for all-out cooperation in the efforts made by the administration to locate Najeeb. Unnecessary politicization of this incident has created hindrances for locating the missing student and resolving the issue.

46. The JNU administration was in regular contact with the police during 21 November to 02 December, 2016. The administration wrote letter to police to expedite the process to locate the missing student.
47. With respect to this incident, the Proctorial enquiry is progressing.
