

SOAS
University of London

ACADEMIC

SUMMER

SCHOOL

2020

Immerse yourself in our transformative summer school experience and interact with like-minded students from across the globe.

See the world differently at SOAS

The Academic Summer School offers a unique opportunity to study in the heart of London, combining cutting-edge research, innovative teaching and practice-oriented learning. Renowned for our global expertise, the Academic Summer School inspires you to adopt an international outlook, challenge the world around you, and form life-long networks.

Enhance your summer experience even further with our exciting range of Guest Lectures and Workshops from leading industry experts. With a series of events featuring BBC News anchors, Fleet Street journalists and political analysts, this addition to the Academic Summer School will equip you with invaluable practical skills to take you further into your future career.

Courses for 2020

SESSION 1: 29 JUNE - 17 JULY 2020	SESSION 2: 20 JULY - 7 AUGUST 2020
Achieving the Sustainable Development Goals	Conflict and International Development
AI and Global Digital Futures	Finance and Risk Management in the Global Economy
Anthropology of Travel, Tourism and Pilgrimage	Gender and Conflict
Climate Crisis: Averting Chaos in a Warming World	International Relations in the 21st Century
Decolonizing Translation and Translation Studies	Learn Chinese 1B
Global Diplomacy in the Modern World	Learn Japanese 1B
International Law	Media and Gender: Representations, Subjectivities and Power
Learn Chinese 1A	Sanskrit for Beginners
Learn Japanese 1A	South Asia: Contested Histories, Uncertain Futures
Learn Korean 1A	Sustainable Finance & Climate Change
Project, Programme and Policy Evaluation	The United Nations and Global Advocacy
The Middle East in Global Politics	“ My experience on the Academic Summer School has renewed my passion to pursue my dreams, inspiring me to want to do more for my community. ” Tshegofatso Seabi, Achieving the Sustainable Development Goals, 2019
The Politics of Protest, Development and Social Change
Understanding Africa
Understanding Research Methods

Further Information

Entry requirements

Minimum one year completed study at undergraduate level.
English language requirements can be found online.

Course fees

Credit assessed: £1,750
Non-assessed: £1,600

Ambassador scholarships

Available for highly motivated students.

SOAS accreditation

Upon successful completion of your course you can receive 15 SOAS credits.

Transferring credit to your home institution

Students typically receive 7.5 ECTS in the European system or 3 credits in the US school system.

Apply now

Visit our website to complete an online application form:
www.soas.ac.uk/summerschools/applications

Contact us

T: + 44 (0) 20 7898 4205
E: summerschool@soas.ac.uk

As someone who hopes to work in government one day, I believe this course and my classmates have exposed me to various types of beliefs and backgrounds that will better inform my policy decisions in my career.

Alexander,
The Middle East in Global Politics

www.soas.ac.uk/summerschool/subjects/

