Restrictions	• Cross-faculty course booking is allowed; however, students should attend most courses in their major and minor(s). • Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences: no cross-level booking. • English Department (English Language and Literature): Students who are not enrolled in English Language and Literature at their home university can only take lectures offered by the English Department. • Department of Biology: Only students who study Biology, Biochemistry or Biomedicine at their home university are allowed to take courses in Biology, Biochemistry or Biomedicine. Also, Block Courses in these subjects are closed to exchange students. • Department of Psychology: Only students who study Psychology as a major at their home university are allowed to take courses offered by the Department of Psychology. • Faculty of Law: Students taking courses at the Faculty of Law must have completed 4 semesters at their home university before the begin of their exchange stay at UZH.
Language Courses	The Language Center of the University of Zurich and ETH offers language courses for students from all fields of study for a fee of CHF 80.-. There are also courses for international and exchange students like "German as a Foreign Language". Exchange students also have the possibility of taking a German course during the two weeks before the lectures start. A fee of CHF 100.- applies for this non-semester German course.

	Information about the exact dates, duration and application deadlines will be available several weeks before the beginning of the semester at https://www.sprachenzentrum.uzh.ch/en.html Exchange students who start their exchange at UZH in the fall semester can also apply for a summer school in Constance, Germany, on the border to Switzerland. The summer school is organized by IBH (International Lake Constance University) and is held in August. • fee (including accommodation): € 790 (summer 2019) • places are limited (priority for exchange students) https://www.uni-konstanz.de/en/international-office/study-in-konstanz/academic-offer-for-international-students/ibh-summer-school/
Transcript of Records	Students can download their official electronic transcript of records after the end of their exchange on their UZH Student Portal account (Mid-March for the fall semester and beginning of October for the spring semester).

Additional Information about UZH
UZH Memberships	UZH is member of the following organizations: • Universitas 21, the leading global network of research universities for the 21st century • The League of European Research Universities (LERU) • The European University Foundation (EUF)

Living in Zurich
Housing	UZH does not own student dormitories. However, Global Student Experience provides a link to a limited number of rooms for international exchange students which are managed by the Housing Office of UZH and ETH. Exchange students will receive more information and the link for the online registration for a room after their acceptance. Additional information: https://www.int.uzh.ch/en/in/organization/living.html
Insurance	For anyone staying in Switzerland longer than three months, it is compulsory to buy Swiss health insurance. If the insurance at the home country is equivalent, students can apply for an exemption from this obligation. Students are required to await a letter from the cantonal Department of Health they will receive after the registration at the so-called "Kreibüro" (Zurich's resident's registration offices). Liability insurance is recommended but not mandatory. Additional information: https://www.int.uzh.ch/en/in/organization/arrival.html
