Dear JNU Fraternity,

This year, the festival of Holi falls on Friday, the 2nd of March. The festivities related with Holi, however, last throughout the week and get reflected in the "Holi mood". Jawaharlal Nehru University is committed to ensuring safety and security for everyone on the campus during this period. Therefore, steps have already been taken towards internal and external security arrangements on the campus, hostels to counter any possible act of hooliganism and rowdy conduct in the name of Holi, particularly those targeting women students. In coordination with the law and order authorities, Proctorial staff, Dean Students office and security personnel, the University is determined to maintain strict vigil and enforce discipline so that nothing untoward happens under the grab of festivities. Strictest possible disciplinary action shall be taken to curb any act of hooliganism and disturbance during Holi under the provision of University Ordinances, and the Sexual Harassment of Women at Work Place Act-2013. This is to ensure a sense of safety and security so that the sentiment and dignity of any person is not hurt during the Holi festival. The law enforcement and security agencies have also assured full co-operation and the University will work in complete coordination with all these bodies and agencies to ensure a safe and peaceful Holi.

Yours sincerely,

Vibha Tandon
